TEXAS ROTARIANS HERE IN JULY 12

The El Paso Club Discusses Plans to Entertain Two Trainloads of Them.

Discussion of plans for entertaining the Rotarians of Texas occupied much of the time of the El Paso Rotary club at its luncheon Thursday at Hotel Sheldon. S. C. Awhrey, chairman of the committee to take care of the visitors, read a letter to the effect that the special train bearing the south Texas Rotarians would arrive here on July 12 at 10 o'clock and would remain here until midnight. They expect the special train from north Texas to join them here on that date. The Rotarians will en route to San Francisco to attend the national gathering of Rotarians in that city. The Texans have leased the Normandie hotel for the week of their convention, and will change the name to "Hotel Texas." Plans are being made to give the visitors an automobile ride down the river and a street car ride to Juarez. They will be given a luncheon at Hotel Sheldon at noon and a dinner in Juarez on night, according to tentative plans. President H. B. Orndorff, on behalf of the chamber of commerce promised financial help in entertaining the Rotarians, who are leading business men of the various cities of Texas. R. F. Davis, manager of D-magdon's Business college, was the speaker of the day Thursday. He told of the history of the D-magdon colleges, of which there are now 66, and said much of the success of the founder, J. F. D-magdon, had been due to the liberal use of printers' ink. He told of the college's guarantee to secure positions for its students and declared that he had a greater demand for help than he could turn out. Tom E. Cranfill of Dallas, member of the Cranfill Realty company, which is soon to put a big addition to El Paso upon the market, said his firm had selected El Paso because it believed El Paso has the greatest future of any city in the country. "You have better business conditions here than in any city in the country," he declared. W. A. White, county road engineer, promised that the county would put the roads in better condition as fast as possible. He is now working on the road north of El Paso towards the New Mexico line. Astonished at City. Edward Maybin, representing the American Thread company, of Dallas, a guest also of the club, said "This is my first visit to El Paso. You have a city here that I never dreamed it is. It is my misfortune that I have never been here before, but henceforth I will be a booster for El Paso. To steal the best motto of a certain beverage bank in my home state, you have the 'vitality and vigor here and to steal another such motto from home, you have 'progress, push and prosper' here. I never saw so much money as you have here." Robert Krakaner urged the Rotarians to try to arrange to attend the celebration of the opening of the new railroad from Wilcox to the Mascot mine, at Dos Cabezas, Ariz., to be held some time in June. Vice president A. E. Rowlands, who presided over the luncheon in the absence of president Adams, would attend the celebration and called on others to do so if they could. Law. TODAY'S AMUSEMENTS

"SALAMBO" AT THE ALHAMBRA. The Alhambra is showing today "Salambo," a splendid love story, which will enlist the sympathies of all the women in the audience, and all the men. This film story is based on the novel of Gustave Flaubert, the French author, and is a grand, inspiring and magnificent spectacular offering, "making in the same class as "The Sign of the Cross" and "Cabrera," in fact one of the greatest films ever made. There are six parts in this elegant photoplay presenting wonderful spectacles—combats, processions, incidents, happenings and adventures of the time when Rome was making herself mistress of the world. This great picture will be here only one day and the public is advised to come early, as it will create a sensation and seats will be in demand. Tomorrow the Alhambra will present pretty, demure Lillian Gish in the Lasky production of Belasco's stage success, "The Woman," one of the strongest and finest photoplays ever made in America. By the way the Alhambra is cool and well ventilated with water washed air. —Advertisement. COMEDY AT THE WIGWAM. The Wigwam today will offer two good single reel comedies and a splendid drama. Tomorrow, a real Broadway star in a real Broadway success will be seen when Katherine La Salle, the star of the current Broadway hit, "Kick In," will appear in "An Innocent Sinner," the former Broadway hit of Lawrence Marston. This is the first of a number of famous plays that the Kalem company will produce with a star who is playing on Broadway at the present time. There will be no increase in the price of admission for this unusual feature. Saturday, enchanting Theda Bara, the stage and screen ideal of vampire woman, will be seen in "The Remonstrance Case." Mlle Bara will be remembered here for her brilliant work in "A Fool There Was" and as costar with Nance O'Neill in "Kreutzer Sonata." —Advertisement. LAST SHOWING OF "ESCAPE." The Unique will show today or the last time "The Escape," by D. W. Griffith, in seven reels, one of the best pictures ever shown in El Paso, which is the verdict of every one who has seen it. It is a picture true to life and something you don't see every day. It will be worth your while, so arrange to see it. As this production taxes the seating capacity of the Unique, it might be well to attend the matinee. Shows start at 11 a. m., 12:45 p. m., 2:30 p. m., 4:15 p. m., 6 p. m., 7:45 p. m., 9:30 p. m. Admission 25 cents.—Advertisement. BLOW TODAY. Two reels of good comedy; also one reel of drama, entitled "The Box Car Tramp," featuring Helen Holmes, will be shown today at the Bijou. The usual quantity of honestly earned thrills and the breathless climax are found in the one reel drama of life on the rail.—Advt.
